33 Mile Roadhouse

33 Mile is legendary for their burgers and heli-skiing. Though owners of 33 Mile don't run the heli-skiing just the facilities. The location is historical. With great burgers and pies it's easy to see why this restraunt stands out as a must try when visiting Haines, Alaska.

Some locals make the trip 33 miles from town to eat there weekly because the food is that tasty. If you agree and are web savvy join our facebook group.
